Key Texts (3 items)

These are the books you will probably find the most helpful. You may wish to purchase one or more of them and read it alongside your studies.

The short guide to community development - Alison Gilchrist, Marilyn Taylor, 2022

Book | Recommended | This book is exactly what it says - a short introduction. A good approach is to read the relevant chapter or section, and then widen your reading on topics that interest you.

Analysing community work: theory and practice - Keith Popple, 2015

Book | Optional | Popple has written widely on social and community work, and in this book he gives an overview of some of the more important theories, models and methods used in the UK and internationally.

Community development, social action and social planning - Alan Twelvetrees

Book | Optional | First published in 1982, this is the fifth edition of a much-loved classic. Twelvetrees' description of the process of analysing a community's needs and then developing an action plan from that will be particularly useful to people taking this module.
